22 training administered by the government accountability board under s. 19.48 (9).

6e NOTE: The drafting instructions directed us to "require all legislators to take ethics training just like legislative staffers are currently required to." The GAB does administer programs under s. 19.48 (9), stats., to explain lobbying and ethics to lobbyists, state public officials, elective public officials, and others. However, no statutory provision requires legislative staffers to complete this instruction.

Also, requiring a member of the legislature to complete ethics training may be construed as a qualification of a legislator that is not explicitly provided for in the constitution. As such, it may not be enforceable. See, e.g., Opinion of Attorney General, August 26, 1976.

That said, it wasn't clear from the drafting instructions when each member must complete the ethics training or how many hours of ethics training the member must complete. This draft does not specify the number of hours the member must complete, but requires the member to complete the ethics training before the member is sworn in. Okay?

This bill requires the board to include on the official registration list an indication of whether an elector was required to provide proof of residence and, if so, the type of identifying document submitted by the elector as proof of residence.
